

BOARDS, COUNCILS, COMMITTEES

Project advisory boards are constituted by the Institute in order to advise the academic activities undertaken through various projects. Following are the primary objectives of the above said advisory committees.

- To make suggestions in order to revise or modify the research activities if needed.
- To put the external member's expertise while writing the conclusions.
- To make proper evaluation of the research methodologies adopted to undertake the works.

The committee members are drawn from

- the various Universities.
- the Non-Governmental Organizations which take care of similar activities.
- well known personnel from the general public who are specialized in the specific area of the research work being undertaken by the Institute.

The minutes and the decisions taken during the project advisory board meetings are available with the Institute. This can be seen by the general public on request.
